The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, Judy Lawson has made a significant impact on the quality of women's health care in Boise, the Treasure Valley, and all of Idaho; and

WHEREAS, Judy Lawson's 25 years of service to Saint Alphonsus Regional Medical Center have culminated in her role in the development of, and service as manager to, the Saint Alphonsus Breast Care Center, an innovative and interdisciplinary facility dedicated to offering the highest possible level of care to the women of Idaho; and

WHEREAS, Judy has contributed to the education of students in the Boise State radiology program through her position as an advisor to that program; and

WHEREAS, Judy has also shown extreme dedication as a volunteer leader in her community as a prominent member of the Idaho Breast Cancer Coalition and the Komen Race for the Cure Board of directors; and

WHEREAS, Judy Lawson has repeatedly served on the organizing committee for the First Lady's Pink Tea, an annual event hosted by Idaho's First Lady and dedicated to raising public about the importance of early detection of breast cancer; and

WHEREAS, through her hard work and dedication, Judy Lawson has directly touched and improved the lives of countless Idaho women and their families;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DIRK KEMPTHORNE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim June 11, 2002 to be in Idaho.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this ninth day of July in the year of our Lord two-thousand and two and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred twenty-seventh and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred thirteenth.
